OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

FOREWORD

On the authority, intent, and lawful application of this codebook.

To the men and women of the Sin City Law Enforcement Department — this volume consolidates the recognized arrest codes and citation amounts under which our officers operate. Each entry has been reviewed and approved by the Office of the President to provide a clear, uniform standard of enforcement across the city.

Every code listed herein carries the full weight of law. Citation amounts reflect the established penalty schedule and shall be applied consistently, without favor or prejudice. Where discretion exists, it is to be exercised in the interest of public safety, due process, and the dignity of those involved.

This document is to be carried, referenced, and respected. It is both a tool of enforcement and a reminder of the trust the people of Sin City have placed in those who wear the badge. Uphold it with integrity, honor, and unwavering service.

Respectfully,

Curt J. Banks

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

To the dedicated men and women of the Sin City Law Enforcement Department — your unwavering service, courage, and professionalism are the foundation upon which the safety and trust of our city are built. Every shift you stand, every call you answer, and every decision you make in service of the public reflects the very best of what this department represents.

This Penal Code & Citation List has been issued to promote consistency, fairness, accountability, and public safety throughout our criminal justice system. It is intended as a clear, uniform guide for officers, prosecutors, and the courts — ensuring that justice is administered equitably, and that the rights of the accused and the protection of the community are held in equal regard.

Let this document serve not only as a procedural reference, but as a renewed commitment to the principles of integrity, honor, and service that define Sin City Law Enforcement. Thank you for your devotion to duty, and for the quiet sacrifices you make in the pursuit of a safer, more just city.

Respectfully,

Curt J. Banks

CURT J. BANKS
PRESIDENT OF SIN CITY
